

Better Conversations

Ainsley Rose, Presenter

September 28, 2016 (8:30 – 3:30 CDT)

Workshop #018-17

GRREC Office & Training Center • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green, KY

About this training...

True dialogue improves professional performance, job satisfaction, and classroom instruction. In this workshop, participants will learn a framework for improving professional dialogue. Participants will increase their awareness of their current beliefs and abilities, learn the 10 habits of being an effective communicator, and put them into practice. Participants will receive copies of Jim Knight's books, Better Conversations and The Reflection Guide to Better Conversation.

About the Presenter...

Ainsley Rose is retired after 35 years of service in public education. As the former director of curriculum and instruction for the Western Quebec School Board in Gatineau, Quebec, Ainsley was responsible for initiating many systemic changes that continue to impact teaching and learning within the school board today. With experience as an elementary and secondary classroom teacher and principal, as well as an instructor of graduate-level courses for administrators and pre-service teachers, Ainsley shares perspectives that resonate with all educators. He is also a published author, keynote presenter, and facilitator. His presentations deliver practical school improvement strategies that work at every level, from within the classroom to district-wide support.
